Dear Ms. Best:

SUBJECT: YOUR FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) REQUEST, FILE
NUMBER DON-USMC-2019-007489

This responds to your May 31, 2019, FOIA request for “[d]ocuments mentioning or relating to Anonymous... or hacktivism... generated between 1 January 2009 and 1 January 2019” from “appropriate IT... or computer offices” and to or from “federal law enforcement or intelligence agencies or any fusion center”. Your request was controlled under file number DON-USMC-2019-007489.

On June 3, 2019, we advised you by email that, in order for us to process your request, we needed additional information. We asked you to provide the names of the Marine Corps personnel whose email accounts and computers you would like searched and the offices which might hold the other records you are seeking. Since you have not responded within the allotted 10 calendar days, we must close your request. If you are able to provide the additional information needed, you are welcome to resubmit your request.

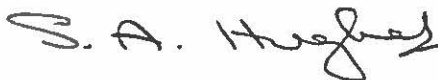

If you consider this to be an adverse determination, you may submit an appeal directly within FOIAonline. To do this, you would log in to your account, retrieve your original request, and then click on the “Create New” tab in the left-hand column and select “Appeal”. The basic information from your request will be duplicated for you, and then you can type in the basis of your appeal. If you prefer to use regular mail, you may submit an appeal to the Judge Advocate General (Code 14), 1322 Patterson Avenue SE, Suite 3000, Washington Navy Yard, DC 20374-5066. Your appeal, if any, must be postmarked within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter and should include a statement indicating why you believe your appeal should be granted.

You also have the right to seek assistance and/or dispute resolution services from the Department of the Navy FOIA Public Liaison, Mr. Christopher Julka, at (703) 697-0031 or Christopher.a.julka@navy.mil.
